A beloved student town

King Henry II founded Britain's first university in 1167 as Britain's alternative to study in Paris. Today, students flock to Oxford to learn English while soaking up the academic atmosphere – in fact one in five people in Oxford are students!

Join your friends to explore the university's medieval quads and mysterious baroque chapels, or soak up true Oxford nightlife in the traditional student pubs and clubs. Enjoy the outdoors – there is a labyrinth of canals to explore by hiring a canal boat!
